

Michigan Department of Civil Rights

Internship Program

Each year, the Michigan Department of Civil Rights has a limited number of opportunities for internships in both its Lansing and Detroit offices. Participants are typically assigned to a specific program area that fits the applicant's educational background or interest. Meaningful, hands-on work experience, assignment to special projects, direct interaction with experienced personnel and senior staffers, are components of the program. Internships are typically unpaid positions.

Undergraduate students, graduate students and law students are encouraged to apply for the Civil Rights Internship program. Specific assignments may be made in the following program areas:

Program Area	Location	Educational Background
Director's Office	Detroit/Lansing	Undergraduate, Graduate or Law student
Michigan Civil Rights Commission	Detroit	Law student
Office of Legal Affairs	Detroit/Lansing	Law student
Michigan Women's Commission	Lansing	Undergraduate or Graduate student
Advisory Council on Asian and Pacific American Affairs	Detroit	Undergraduate or Graduate student
Advisory Council on Arab and Chaldean American Affairs	Detroit	Undergraduate or Graduate student
Public Information Office	Detroit/Lansing	Undergraduate or Graduate student
Community Services Division	Detroit/Lansing	Undergraduate or Graduate student
Mediation Unit	Detroit	Graduate student-Dispute Resolution
Contract Compliance Unit	Detroit	Undergraduate or Graduate student

If you are interested in being considered for an internship, please send a cover letter indicating your area of interest and a resume to the attention of:

Michigan Department of Civil Rights-Office of Human Resources
Internship Program
3010 W. Grand Blvd. Suite 3-600
Detroit, MI 48202